A colored man, named Doc Smith, was called to his door and shot down by some unknown person about twenty miles telow Little Rock, one night last week, and died from his wounds Thurs-

Sixteen hundred ladies were present at a temperance meeting held in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Thursday. An association of boys, between the ages of ten and fifteen years, was, organized to take part in the movement. A Dayton, Ohio, saloonist who closed up his spirituous traffle has an empty whisky bottle reversed and draped with black crape hanging conspicuously over his bar with an inscription, "Nix come arouse," in large letters above it.

Ten fires in Boston Wednesday night. but only two were of consequence—one on Commercial street where the loss was about sixty-five thousand dollars; another on Plymton street, loss twentyfive thousand dollars, mostly insured. Ross Saulsbury, with as many aliases as suited his fancy, a notorious confiience rooster and bank swindler, escaped jail at Doylestown, Pennsylvania, yesterday. The banks of Louisville offer five hundred dollars for his delivery in that streets were thronged with spectators to witness the pageaut.

Among the names most prominently mentioned as Senator Sumuer's probable successor, are Henry L. Dawes, Esq., Governor J. H. Clifford, Governor Washbarn, General Banks, General Butler and Speaker Sanford. The election will probably take place on the twenty-sixth instant. Miss Hunt, the Indianapolis Quaker ess, addressed a large audience in front of the Falls City hotel in Jeffersonville, Indiana. She claims she is not work-ing for the cause for money nor for pop-ularity; that her love for the cause and the good she can accomplish prompts her to work for the salvation of souls. Dispatches from northwestern Iowa Amsierdam. report the continued suffering among the settlers on homesteads in Osceola, Other continental ports. Lyon, and other counties in the extreme orthwest, caused by the failure of crops. Dr. McCoy, of Iowa, is now solici-ting aid for the sufferers, and has collected already some six hundred dollars. John Settles, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, has occupied the attention of the crusaders the past day or two. They renewed their attack on his saloon Thursday, when Mrs. John Settles, provided herself with an auction-bell and rang it loud and long during the ceremonies. His case is considered hopeless. Considerable excitement existed in that city Thursday. Hon. Edmund Smith, member of the Ohio State constitutional convention, from Shelby county, fell dead at his boarding-house, corner of third and Broadway, in Cincinnati, yesterday, while talking to the clerk, at a quarter past six o'clock. He was in his seat in the convention all day. This is the second death in the convention since the new year. Apoplexy is the supposed cause. Advices by mail from Buenos Ayres

A deficit of at least fifty-eight thou-sand dollars has been found in the ac-count of Adolph Rammers, late tax-receiver of Louisville, who died very suddenly and under suspicious circumstances, Monday morning. The com-stances, Monday morning. The committee on fluance of the city council are still engaged in the examination, and other deficits may yet be found. An inquest on the body has been postponed, until the contents of the stomach are fully examined and a report made. Rammers was possessed of considerable property, besides an insurance of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars on his life, which will probably be contested.

At Jeffersonville, Indiana, Thursday the crusaders visited the saloon of John Settles, ou Spring street, at four o'clock, and met Settles at the door, who attacked Mrs. Jackson, one of the leading crusaders, throwing her down. The police interfered and quieted the disturbance. After several prayers and songs John Settles became very boisterous, drew off his coat and propoced to fight the entire crowd. Efforts of firends quieted him. While drinks were being sold, and the rattling of glasses and oaths were heard across the street, being sold, and the rattling of glasses and oaths were heard across the street, services continued. The crowd had increased so that the street was literally blocked and the excitement at its on hight. Friends of the movement and seal hight. Friends of the movement and against it seemed ready for any emergency, and fears have been expressed, by a number of good citizens, that it may yet lead to bloodshed. Mrs. Settles, being so enraged, she told the crusaders it would look better for them to be at name, where they belonged, provide and look after their families as well as the barrel. nome, where they belonged, provide and look after their families as well as nome, where they belonged, provide and look after their families as well as the did, instead of trying to raise a riot Tunkers Small offerings at $14918. at other people's houses.
